"SFFLA"

Scandinavian Film Festival L.A.

- SFFLA ◦ founded to offer an annual opportunity for L.A. audiences to focus of the offerings of Nordic film makers with a program of Oscar® contenders, current feature films, shorts, and documentaries from Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, and Sweden.
- SFFLA ◦ featured in the L.A. Times as an event "not to be missed."
- SFFLA ◦ recognized by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors as an important addition to the L.A. film scene.
- SFFLA ◦ celebrated by film writers as "a gem of a boutique festival" and "my favorite festival during 'film season'."
- SFFLA ◦ YOUR OPPORTUNITY to link your name to the gift of "Northern lights, camera, action...."

“
SFFLA has been called the place where Nordic film 'winters' in Southern California.

SFFLA is an initiative of the American Scandinavian Foundation of Los Angeles a non-profit educational and cultural foundation.

We depend on individual, corporate, and organizational donors to "make it happen."

SFFLA has a proven track record for bringing people together and celebrating the work of Nordic film makers in the "film capital of the world." Our home is the Writers Guild Theater in Beverly Hills just around the corner from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

This is your opportunity to link your name to an event that has helped thousands of people enjoy that Viking sense of discovery of the new worlds of Nordic film.
